

17 November 1981

NOTE FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

VIA: Executive Secretariat

1. Our paramilitary folk were interested in exploring [redacted] possible value to us. Security, unfortunately, has some [redacted] info and, therefore,
waved us off.

STAT

2. A further complication is that [redacted] according to his statements to the press, is now a naturalized [redacted]
This would require us to clear and coordinate with the [redacted] were we to make operational use of him.

STAT

3. On balance, the complications of using [redacted] outweigh the possible gain.

STAT

John H. Stem

I have no problem with this recommendation. However, I have been from several directions that we tend to employ for weapons, & would like to see SECRET a spokesman with an alternative at the moment, or buying parts.

BEST COPY

AVAILABLE